The Story of Peter Pan

Our portrayal of the Story of Peter Pan is a new and different idea. It is done on flashing blades and is not without a few downfalls!

The opening scene is in the bedroom of the Darling home where the three children Wendy, John and Michael, are being put to bed by Nana, their dog nursemaid. Mr. and Mrs. Darling come in to say good-night to the children before going out for the evening.

The Children are asleep when a little figure, Peter Pan, enters the room looking for his shadow. Tinker Bell, a fairy from Never Never Land, helps Peter to find his shadow. Wendy awakes and Peter convinces her to fly back with him to Never Never Land and act as mother to the lost boys who live there. After John and Michael awake they also want to go on the trip, so Peter, Tinker Bell, Wendy, John and Michael all fly away.

COMPLIMENTS OF

THE TOWN OF FLIN FLON

In Never Never Land they meet the lost boys, see all the animals, flowers, Indians, beautiful mermaids, the wicked pirates and Tic Toc the crocodile (who by the way is always eager to devour the pirate leader, Captain Hook!)

The children are captured by the pirates but Peter Pan comes to their rescue and after some fierce fighting, in which the pirates are defeated, the Darling children fly back home where they live happily ever after!
